

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: EXHIBITORS REACHING OUT

While we had to cancel the 2020 MPA conference, it doesn't mean you can't view what our exhibitors were going to offer! Please checkout the links for the following organizations – some have some special offers just for our attendees!

APA Digital Learning

With many instructors being asked to deliver course material in an online environment due to COVID-19, APA Publishing is extending its offer of free access to PsycLearn®: Research Methods and PsycLearn®: Introduction to Social Psychology. Instructors in the U.S. may use these products with their students at no cost in summer term classes that start before June 30, 2020. Interested educators should contact their APA Partnership Manager or email psyclearn@apa.org.

Along with other participating publishers and our distribution partners VitalSource and RedShelf, we are offering digital content free of charge through May 25, 2020.

With APA Style® content in particular demand, librarians might also point their patrons to our free online seventh edition style and grammar guidelines.

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

The American Psychological Association recognizes that this is an extraordinary time for psychology, for those served by our field, and for all of us as individuals. APA is responding by applying psychological knowledge to this pressing challenge to support psychologists, impact policy makers and benefit the public.

Get the latest information and developments impacting you, your work and society. Visit APA's COVID-19 resource page for a host of science-based resources, tools, information and tips for researchers, educators, clinicians, consultants, students and the broader society.

With many students and faculty stuck at home, Cedrus is offering free use of our SuperLab experiment building software until the end of July. Everyone qualifies. See details.

The Michigan School of Psychology (MSP) provides an educational climate which inspires students to live up to their potential, professionally and personally. Hey there, we are sorry to have missed you at the annual MPA convention of 2020. KCU was looking forward to hearing about your research, telling you a little bit about our program, and helping answer questions about our program or graduate school in general. I would like to invite you to browse through our webpage, which is loaded with a ton of great information about our program and what makes it unique. We offer a Clinical Psychology (PsyD) Doctorate degree that will give our graduates exposure to all of the basic building blocks of clinical psychology as well as integrating an inter-professional education model. We are uniquely nestled within an Osteopathic medical program that allows our students to learn on an inter-professional level as well as train on an inter-professional level. We look forward to hearing from you and if you have any questions please reach out to us at PsyD@kcumb.edu.

Alliant International University
California School of Professional Psychology

Founded in 1969, the California School of Professional Psychology (CSPP), was one of the nation's first independent schools of professional psychology. Today, CSPP continues its commitment to preparing the next generation of mental health professionals and advocates. Our dedication to ensuring every community's access to quality mental health care extends from integrated care to inclusive family therapy, and our students and alumni begin making an impact in the communities they serve from the moment they set foot in our classrooms.
