

1930

Preliminary Announcement

FIFTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MIDWESTERN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

The Fifth Annual Meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association will be held at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, May 23-24, 1930. All the sessions will convene in the new Science Building on the south side of the campus. Everyone attending the meeting is asked to register immediately upon arrival.

Yellow Springs is reached by electric car in thirty minutes from Springfield or Xenia, which are on the main lines of the Big Four and Pennsylvania Railroads respectively. From the northwest the best connection is made by a through train on the Pennsylvania which leaves Chicago at 11:20 P. M. (berths ready for occupancy after 10:30 P. M.) and arrives in Yellow Springs at 8:30 A. M. Persons staying at hotels in Springfield may check their baggage through by buying tickets to Springfield (without extra fare).

For those driving, the village of Yellow Springs is on Ohio Route 53, halfway between Xenia and Springfield.

Arrangements for hotel accommodations have been made at the following hotels in Springfield:

- Shawnee: Single room with lavatory $2.50 and up
- Double room with lavatory $4.00 and up
- Single room with bath $3.00 to $5.00
- Double room with bath $5.00 to $8.00

- Bancroft: Single room with bath $2.50 to $4.00
- Double room with bath $4.00 and $4.50
- Double room with bath (twin beds) .. $5 and $6

Heaume: Single room	$2.00 and up
Double room with bath	$3.50 and up
Three in one room, single beds (special rate)	$5.00

Reservations should be made directly with the hotels.

Antioch College will provide autobus transportation to Springfield after the Friday and Saturday evening meetings and from Springfield before the Saturday morning meeting. There is also interurban connection for those who do not drive. Free parking space overnight will be available near the hotels.

A limited number of rooms may be obtained in private homes in Yellow Springs and in the men's dormitories. Accommodations in the latter are of course not those of a first class hotel; the charge will be $1.00 a night in the dormitories, and $1.50 and $2.00 in private homes.

The annual dinner will be served in the college dining room. As only two hundred persons can be served, tickets must be purchased in advance. Price $1.00. (Informal dress.)

Meals will be served in the college dining room, in the tea room maintained by the college adjacent to the campus, and at The Maples, a small tea room in the village.

Rest room facilities for women will be provided in the women's dormitory. The parlors in the women's dormitory will be open at all times to attendants of the meeting.

It will greatly facilitate the work of the local committee in making arrangements for the meeting if those expecting to attend will fill out the following blank and return it at once to the Secretary (H. B. English, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio). Programs will be sent only to those who indicate their intention of attending the meeting.

If you intend to attend the meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association, May 23-24, about when do you expect to arrive in Yellow Springs?

Do you wish transportation to and from Springfield as outlined in the announcement?

Do you wish arrangement made for you for a room in a private home in Yellow Springs? (The cost will be somewhat less than at hotels; only a limited number can be thus accommodated.)

Do you wish to be accommodated in the men's dormitories? (Cost $1.00 a night; number of available rooms limited.)
..... For which nights?

Do you wish to attend the Annual Dinner Saturday evening, tickets $1.00? (As the number who can be served is limited, please answer this question.)

Do you wish to attend the Presidential Address which follows the dinner Saturday evening? (If the number who wish to be present exceeds the available space in the dining room, the address will be given elsewhere.)

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Max F. Meyer, Missouri, President; E. A. Culler, Illinois; L. L. Thurstone, Chicago; H. B. English, Antioch College, Secretary.

LOCAL COMMITTEE

The Secretary and M. L. Reymert, Wittenberg.